

16 FINAL THAW BRIEF FILED

Conspiracy Indictment Charges No Crime, It Alleges. Concord, N. H., Nov. 3.—The final brief for Harry K. Thaw in his efforts to resist his extradition from New Hampshire to New York was filed with Governor Fisher to-day.

The brief states that the indictment returned by the New York County Grand Jury, charging conspiracy to escape from the Matteawan Asylum, does not charge a crime, because an insane person could not be guilty of conspiracy if insane to such an extent as to be irresponsible for his acts, while, if he was sufficiently mentally responsible to be guilty of the offence, he had a legal right to escape.

"A person charged with breaking out of prison may show in defence of that charge that he was unlawfully confined in the prison," the brief states. "It is asserted that the regulation is not in accordance with the rules of practice adopted by the Governors of the different States for extradition, that the regulation is not made in accordance with the rules of the State of New York."

Travers Jerome, Special Deputy Attorney General of New York, in obtaining the indictment, after having been attacked in the brief, which says: "The language used is bulging and no other purpose than the silly thought to intimidate your Excellency. This unusual and uncalled for extrajudicial proceeding is a personal, private purpose of the part of the Special Deputy Attorney General and is not consistent with the proper dignified discharge of public duty."
